The REAL Objection to Opt Out - Insurance Thought Leadership
 Opted Out Of The Real Whether the deal doesn't seem quite as good as before or quarantine measures mean you need to stay where you are, there are opportunities to back out of a real estate contract. With the right contract contingencies and clear communication with your real estate agent, it's possible to emerge relatively unscathed - as long as you don't wait too long. How to Tactfully Back Out of a Real Estate Contract | Real ... The Real Lesson of the 'Opt-Out Generation' By Ann Friedman
 Ten years ago The New York Times Magazine declared a revolution when it introduced us to a handful of highly educated women who had decided to, in the story's titular phrase, "opt out" of their jobs. The Real Lesson of the 'Opt-Out Generation' If opt out spreads beyond Texas, it is hugely threatening to the interests of the PCI members because they stand to lose considerable business, particularly if opt out migrates to the bigger P&C states. PCI is protecting its own interests (or those of its members) by objecting to opt out. And I don't blame them. The REAL Objection to Opt Out - Insurance Thought Leadership The real battle is getting public safety agencies to "opt in" and use the network. The true value of FirstNet is realized by getting every agency to use the network and to use common applications such as mapping and situational awareness, interoperable computer-aided dispatch, information sharing apps, group messaging, LMR-to-LTE integration and more.
