Da un'intuizione di Gianfranco Contini e dai saggi di Ezio Raimondi e Werther Romani si fa strada una definizione del modo di tradurre di Castelvetro che si rivela utile al riconoscimento di altri suoi lavori di traduzione. Su questa base, l'autore gli attribuisce il volgarizzamento di sette opere che illustrano e divulgano la dottrina luterana: quattro di Martin Lutero e tre di Urbano Regio. Un minuzioso lavoro di indagine intertestuale mette in luce i riscontri che collegano le diverse opere e ne consentono l'attribuzione a un unico traduttore. Con ciò Castelvetro diviene il primo e il più attivo divulgatore della teologia luterana in Italia: una prospettiva storiografica che rivoluziona i tempi e i modi della diffusione del pensiero della Riforma nel nostro Paese. Remains, Historical and Literary, Connected with the Palatine Counties of Lancaster and Chester

Springer Nature List of publications, v. 1-132, in v. 132. Conflict, Power, and Multitude in Machiavelli and Spinoza Rubbettino Editore The book reflects on the issues concerning, on the one hand, the difficulty in feeding an ever-increasing world population and, on the other hand, the need to build new productive systems able to protect the planet from overexploitati on. The concept of "food diversity" is a synthesis of diversities: biodiversity of ecological sources of food supply; socio-territorial diversity; and cultural diversity of food traditions. In keeping with this transdisciplinary perspective, the book collects a large number of contributions that examine, firstly the relationships between agrobiodiversity, rural sustainable systems and food diversity; and secondly, the issues concerning typicality (food specialties/food identities), rural development and territorial communities. Lastly, it explores legal questions concerning the regulations aiming to protect both the food diversity and the right to food, in the light of the political, economic and social implications related to the problem of feeding the world population, while at the same time respecting local communities' rights, especially in the developing countries. The book collects the works of legal scholars, agroecologists, historians and sociologists from around the globe. Memoirs Chiefly Illustrative of the History and Antiquities of Northumberland

For almost half a century, Vivian Nutton has been a leading figure in the study of ancient (and less ancient) medicine. The field itself has been revolutionised over that time. In this volume distinguished colleagues and former students develop, in his honour, key themes of his ground-breaking scholarship. Spanning from the Bronze Age to the Digital Age, involving the cult of Artemis and the corpuscular theories of Asclepiades of Bithynia, the medicinal uses of beavers and the cost of health-care and wet-nursing, case-histories, remedy exchange and the medical repercussions of political assassination, this book has at its centre the pluralism and diversity of the ancient medical marketplace. The lively interplay between choice and competition, unity and division, communication and debate, so notable in Vivian Nutton's foundational vision of the world of classical medicine, is richly examined across these pages. Monasticon Anglicanum Edward Elgar Publishing Conflict, Power and Multitude in Machiavelli and Spinoza explores Spinoza's political philosophy by confronting it with that of Niccolò Machiavelli. Filippo Del Lucchese conducts a study of the relationship between Machiavelli and Spinoza from a perspective at once philosophical, historical and political. The book begins by showing how closely tied the two thinkers are in relation to realism. Del Lucchese then goes on to examine the theme of conflict as a crucial element of an understanding of Machiavelli and Spinoza's conceptions of modernity. The book concludes with an examination of the concept of 'multiplicity' and 'plural' expressions of politics, namely Machiavelli's popolo and Spinoza's multitudo. Overall, the Machiavelli-Spinoza axis offers a fruitful perspective through which to analyse the relationship between contending ideas of modernity from a historical point of view, and provides an original point of departure for discussing some key theoretical, political and juridical notions that have resurfaced in contemporary debates.

remote areas in order to improve medical care. Access to health care services is critical to good health, but residents of remote areas face a variety of access barriers. The obstacles faced by health care providers and patients in rural areas are very different from those in urban areas. This could be caused by economic factors, cultural and social differences, educational deficiencies, lack of recognition by legislators, and the sheer isolation of living in inland areas, all of which conspire to create health care disparities and hinder people living in inland areas in their struggle to lead normal, healthy lives. Based on available analyses, further progress is needed to promote appropriate ss of care, address geographic imbalances in health care use, and prevent the spread of risk factors including chronic diseases and regular health problems. To eradicate these problems, it is essential to develop a telemedicine system with ICT integration that will help patients in inland areas by using contemporary technologies: it would thus be possible for patients to meet their goals using these systems even without the presence of a physician since authenticated prescriptions are generated by doctors and can be transmitted to patients electronically. The volume will contain a number of ideas from researchers who are already working to find solutions and will give insights into exploring innovative methods and new systems developed.

So Romance 'Faced with the challenge of studying EU law, students and other interested parties need guidance and accessible materials.

Despite the ground clearing of the Lisbon Treaty, the terrain is still not properly mapped.

Edward and Lane's completely rewritten book provides just what's needed. Clear, comprehensible and comprehensive, it will be an important port of call for anyone trying to figure out key aspects of the EU's ever burgeoning legal order.' - Jo Shaw, University of Edinburgh, UK

A comprehensive updated and expanded new edition of a classic text, this authoritative volume provides expert analysis on the key issues across all areas of European Union law - including its constitutional, procedural and substantive aspects. Importantly, the book incorporates the Treaty of Lisbon reorientation and immediate post-Lisbon developments. Throughout the book there is extensive reference to primary sources (Treaty, legislation, case law) and to issues of national adaptation which, together, bring a depth of understanding and analysis to this increasingly complex discipline. Roma TrE-Press Il volume, ponendosi dalla prospettiva del diritto penale, intende offrire degli spunti di riflessione in riferimento all'intricato tema della tutela della salute dei soggetti sottoposti a limitazioni coattive della propria libertà personale. La premessa è quella di una nozione ampia di "luoghi di detenzione", all'interno della quale ricondurre non solo il carcere, ma anche le residenze per l'esecuzione delle misure di sicurezza (REMS) e i centri di permanenza per i rimpatri (CPR), destinati al trattenimento degli stranieri irregolari. Ciascuna delle tre sezioni in cui si articola il volume fornisce anzitutto una ricostruzione del dato normativo di riferimento, evidenziando quella fuga dalla legalità che troppo spesso caratterizza l'esecuzione delle pene, delle misure di sicurezza personali e del trattenimento degli stranieri irregolari. Si è cercato poi di affrontare questioni specifiche e particolarmente e problematiche come il c.d. carcere duro, il diritto di rifiutare le cure del soggetto in vinculis, la responsabilità del medico psichiatra nel nuovo sistema delle REMS. Un'attenzione particolare è stata infine riservata alla giurisprudenza della Corte europea dei diritti dell'uomo, vista la sempre più significativa influenza della stessa per una ridefinizione degli standard minimi di tutela all'interno dei luoghi di detenzione.
