 Adjutant's Guide to Etiquette 2 is designed as training text to assist those who are called to serve Bishops, Overseers, Senior Pastors and leaders. Read and take notes. This book will help jump start your ministry of service to your leader and the Body of Christ. May God use this book and your service to be as an Aaron and Hur to your leader, pushing them to their next dimension of accomplishment in their God given assignment.

 Famulus de Episcopo is a manual which provides insight into the nuances of adjutancy and is referenced as a resource for the certification of adjutants within CECO. The contents of its pages also serve as a benchmark in basic knowledge for those who serve as adjutants, by outlining the qualifications for service as well as illustrating key concepts for successful discipleship which can be applied to the individual, local as well as national levels of ministry. The practical guidelines which exist in this work provide a structure by which a church or reformation can stand up its own adjutancy and govern them according to the tenants seen herein. Famulus de Episcopo is a manual, a reference, a benchmark and a resource for every adjutant and episcopate who wishes to further their knowledge of the adjutancy, episcopacy and the relationship between the two. Everyone who serves, and everyone who utilizes a Godly servant can readily find benefit on these pages.

 The Royal Flying Corps, later the Royal Air Force, was formed in 1912 and went to war in 1914 where it played a vital role in reconnaissance, supporting the British Expeditionary Force as 'air cavalry' and also in combat, establishing air superiority over the Imperial German Air Force. Edward Bujak here combines the history of the air war, including details of strategy, tactics, technical issues and combat, with a social and cultural history. The RFC was originally dominated by the landed elite, in Lloyd George's phrase 'from the stateliest houses in England', and its pilots were regarded as 'knights of the air'. Harlaxton Manor in Lincolnshire, seat of landed gentry, became their major training base. Bujak shows how, within the circle of the RFC, the class divide and unconscious superiority of Edwardian Britain disappeared - absorbed by common purpose, technical expertise and by an influx of pilots from Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa. He thus provides an original and unusual take on the air war in World War I, combining military, social and cultural history.

 Prepared by the Office of the Chief of Chaplains, United States Army, this handbook provides a useful guide to the beliefs and practices of a number of religious groups. It provides a useful reference, both for professionals such as airport and hospital chaplains, and for lay readers interested in a basic guide to religious groups not readily covered in other references. A specific purpose of the handbook was also to limit the amount of information provided on each group. Thus, while the information is accurate (in most instances approved by authorities from the individual groups themselves), it is by no means comprehensive. The material presented in the handbook was derived through an extensive research effort. The handbook includes 37 different group descriptions, divided into seven categories. The categories are: Christian Heritage Groups Japanese Heritage Groups Jewish Groups Indian Heritage Groups Islamic Groups Sikh Groups Other Groups Among the uniform topics covered for each group are: historical roots, origins in the U.S., number of adherents in the U.S., organizational structure, leadership and role of priesthood, who may conduct worship services, is group worship required, dietary laws or restrictions, special religious holidays, funeral and burial requirements, autopsy, cremation, medical treatment, is a priest required at the time of death, basic teachings or beliefs, and ethical practices. The book is a guide to assisting adjutants, armor bearers, and all those who serve leadership in any capacity. It demonstrates the biblical history of the armor bearer and its relevance in today's church. It also reveals why the adjutancy was created and its importance to today's leadership. The book explains the adjutant's various functions and duties through biblical and personal references. The book assists in understanding the importance of protocol and its function in ministry. The book also demonstrates the various protocols the adjutant must be familiar with to serve in various settings effectively. The book assists servants in developing an operational team that will serve the leadership and the ministry, whether in their church or other settings. The book is not a "do this only" but serves as a blueprint for servants, giving them a solid guideline to develop a plan to serve more effectively in their local and abroad ministry. The book will enhance and enrich how adjutants serve and how they view their assignments.

This teaching is dedicated to examining some of the practical applications that an Armorbearer/Adjutant of Christ or one who has the calling of Armorbearing should clearly understand because these practices will make things run smoothly while "Guarding The Anointing" on that pastor. And serving as leaders, it will help bring discipline to the ministry and to the leadership inside the House of GOD as well as when you travel outside of the domains of your local church setting. Now whether your Pastor is a local church leader only or they have a traveling ministry, these practices should be in place. In biblical days, an Armorbearer was one who actually carried the shield and armor of the king as he went into battle, often acting as his personal assistant. For example, King Saul had several Armorbearers assigned to him; so today, in the Body of Christ, we continue to need our spiritual armor and those who are anointed to "Guard" it in the spiritual realm. The Ephesians' writer commands us to put on the full armor of GOD so that we can take our stand against the devil's attacks; spiritual or physical!!! Just as much as our early century counterparts, we who have been anointed in the ministry of an Armorbearer of Christ, are to suit up in the Armor of GOD and "Guard the Anointing" of GOD'S Messenger in the battle of faith. The term Armorbearer was originally translated from the Hebrew word, nasa, meaning to figuratively or literally "lift up," "support" or "simply help." On occasion, theologians translate the word "help" from the Hebrew word, nasa; and in light of these defining terms, we can see an Armorbearer is one that "helps" or "supports" the vision of that pastor during the times of battle. In the Body of Christ, an Armorbearer of Christ is one "anointed" by GOD to "guard the anointing" on that man or woman of GOD by serving and helping them in life, ministry, and especially in the fight of Faith. In essence, an Armorbearer of Christ is called to make sure they are attended to, ministered to, cared for, helped, to be of use, to assist, to benefit, to promote, to support, to make easy for, to nourish, and to encourage the pastor. Furthermore, the attitude and mindset of an Armorbearer of Christ is one of servanthood because the mindset of an Armorbearer of Christ is to do whatever it takes to serve and support the pastor; and operating under the anointing of an Armorbearer of Christ can be described as operating in the principles or pervading qualities of servanthood, commitment, attentiveness, support, help, loyalty, and faithfulness. Armorbearing in the attitude of service is not just the performing of humble tasks but is an effort to serve Christ in the Kingdom of GOD. JESUS said, "The servant of all is the greatest of all." Among my favorite examples are the great men in Old Testament Scripture, many who were faithful armorbearers before their public ministry. King David, and King David's mighty men, Elisha and Joshua exemplified the anointing of an Armorbearer of Christ in excellence; even Elisha's assistant, Gehazi, offers us an example of what we do not want to do as an Armorbearer of Christ. One need not think that the LORD GOD only called Armorbearers of Christ or helpers to assist in the ancient battles.

This book is intended for the sacred garrison of anointed men and women of God assigned to protect and to serve the leadership of Body of Christ. There are many general references that offer explanations and advice on what Adjutants should do, and how to be an Adjutant; in fact the magnum opus of our craft is found in a book called God's Armorbearer,1 by Elder Terry Nance In historic times knights were military operatives who were appointed to the service of monarchs and other high-ranking nobles. In our time the Adjutancy serves the highest-ranking leadership of the Church. Over the course of these pages, we have attempted to convey an image of the Adjutancy that reinforces this idea of Christian kighthood.
