 Look to The Directory of Corporate and Foundation Givers 2000 to compare corporate and private giving programs. This unique giving guide, the largest listing of corporate and foundation giving data available anywhere, is the most comprehensive and expertly arranged prospecting directory you'll find. Corporate and Foundation Givers 2000 puts you in touch with more than 8,000 funding sources. This edition features: -- Full contact information, including more than 2,000 Web and e-mail addresses -- 4,500 private foundations that have assets of at least $1.8 million or distribute a minimum of $250,000 in grants annually -- Approximately 3,500 corporate giving programs, including more than 1,575 corporate foundations and 2,000 corporate direct givers -- Identifies and indexes Top-10 givers in our nine Recipient Type areas: Arts & Humanities; Civic & Public Affairs; Education; Environment; Health; International; Religion; Science; and Social Services. -- Details on over 50,000 actual grants Corporate and Foundation Givers 2000 contains many features not available in other directories -- details that are invaluable to researchers compiling comprehensive profiles of prospective funders. Among the many features you will find: -- Biographical data -- includes data on more than 34,000 foundation officers, directors and trustees and corporate officers. You'll find essential background information for uncovering important links and relationships between foundations and corporations and the members of your board of directors and constituency. When available, profiles of individuals include titles; place and year of birth; alma mater and year of graduation; current employer; an corporate, nonprofit and philanthropic affiliations. Includes Index of Officers and Directors by Name -- Recent grants -- lists the Top-10 grants recently disbursed. These top grants take most of the guesswork out of your prospect research by listing the actual organizations that received major support, how much they received and where they're located -- Historical data -- almost all of the profiles list assets, giving figures and contributions received for three years. You can track the increases or decreases in the level of contributions and assets, then rate philanthropic programs according to their financial potential and giving trends, identify new potential donors and predict future giving patterns -- Comprehensive scope and arrangement -- profiles are listed in a single 2-vol. directory and organized in an easy-to-use alphabetical series that lists the most active foundation and corporation grantmakers. You'll find detailed information on whom to contact and application procedures, current financial activity, biographical data and major products/industries, enabling you to evaluate your chances for receiving funding and determine the best approach for soliciting potential donors -- Nine easy-to-use indexes -- speed access to information on location of operation, fields of interest and relationships, which will help you target and refine your prospect research in order to find the best potential donors

With libraries under the gun to provide more and better services, and with fewer resources in many cases, they need to come up with innovative and reliable ways to fund new initiatives. Providing targeted access to the most promising major givers, The Big Book of Library Grant Money 2002-2003 is the largest directory available, pulled from an authoritative and upto-the-minute database of library-specific funders. This forward-looking edition includes more than 2,175 private and corporate foundations and givers that have either indicated an interest in giving money to libraries or have already done so. Organized by state, potential donors in The Big Book are profiled with contact and portfolio information, past contributions summary and analysis, and application information. With historical data, you can track contributions and assets and predict future giving patterns. Offering you the most hooks for connecting with actual people, The Big Book also provides biographical information on more than 34,000 foundation officers, directors, trustees, and corporate officers. As an added feature, ALA's own development office experts have included tips on winning grants for libraries. Tailo
