 Marie Howe's latest book, The Kingdom of Ordinary Time, merges the metaphysical onto everyday life and examines the presence of the sacred in "ordinary time," where "One loaf = one loaf. One fish = one fish." By doing this, Howe reshapes the way we look at the biblical ideas that are common to many of us. She re-illustrates the idea of unconditional love in "The Kingdom of Ordinary Time" by Marie Howe | Poetry Center
 The Kingdom of Ordinary Time confirms Howe's position as one of the finer, most serious-minded poets of her generation.
