Transforming Lives WestBow Press

A psalm is a way to focus yourself on him whether it be for worship, prayer, praise, in happiness, madness or sadness. In a psalm you can show your love, needs or struggles which may even be with trust. You don't need to be ashamed to express them to him for God knows these feelings, as he gave and shares them with you, and by going to him, he will help you to deal with them in the most perfect way. A psalm is a way to acknowledge that he is in control, his is the right way and for that I am thankful and do praise. We know that scripture is true inspired by the Spirit for all of us. So this one very important point needs to be made, there is no intent on my part, to ignore or replace, any words in his book. It is my hope and prayer this book will bring you closer to him. A psalm allows you to place your cares in his palms, see how it calms, that is why this book is called "My Psalms"

Praying girls are strong girls, brave girls who know that their worth lies in who God says they are, girls who trust him and know that he always comes through. But how do we get our girls to see prayer as more than just a thing they do when they go to bed? How do we encourage them to see each moment spent with God as part of a larger conversation and a deepening of the most important relationship of their lives? With Praying Girls Devotional, bestselling author Sheila Walsh offers girls ages 11 to 14 the tools to begin a life of prayer. She helps them learn - to talk to God in a simple and honest way - how to pray when they don't know what to say - that God is listening and that no problem is too big and no prayer too small - that prayer is a powerful weapon for every girl - and so much more. If you long to see your daughters, granddaughters, nieces, and other girls in your life develop a strong prayer life, this beautiful two-color devotional makes the perfect gift for every girl.

This book is written to all kinds of people because all of us need to pray. Praying means asking. None of us is exempted from praying because we are all dependants in one way or another. Everything that is not God depends on God. We are inadequate because there is no time we don't have expectations to meet. We have shared human desires. For example, everyone needs to be loved. We are all exclusively dependants on God because the desires of the human heart can only be found in the Lord. Trying to fix things apart from God is the recipe of failure. Praying is the greatest fellowship with God. We pray to the 'all-sufficient' God because we are insufficient by ourselves. Humanity with all human resources cannot save or fulfill itself. Our desires are endless and are constantly changing. For example, our eyes are never satisfied with seeing; we always want to see something new. Our ears are never satisfied with hearing; we always want to hear the current news. Likewise, the soul is never tired of yearning for the transcendent. People take different avenues when seeking for fulfillment but only those who have discovered the power of prayer experience true fulfillment. We are called to pray unceasingly because there is constantly a feeling of emptiness when we do not communicate with God. Emptiness is the reality of the void that colonized the heart, which was once a sacred space occupied by the Divine. Praying is to be intimate with God; it is having God's ear and eye in order to see the earthly things from the heavenly perspective.

Today's Prayer Augsburg Books

This lavishly illustrated daily prayer book draws on the great spiritual insights and wisdom of the Celtic church, offering prayers and Scripture readings for every morning and evening of the week. Each day Celtic Benediction invites readers to meditate on a different aspect of the creation story from Genesis. On Sunday the theme is light. In the morning, the prayers and readings lead us to seek the light of the life of God in all his creatures. At night, we meditate on the light that no darkness can overcome as we bring the world and its needs to God. And so on through each day of the week: water, the fruitful earth, the animal world, humanity, playful rest, and all that God has made draw us into intimate prayer. Related Scripture readings are also given for each day of the year, making this a book to use constantly. Illustrated throughout with colored panels from the Lindisfarne Gospels, Celtic Benediction offers contemporary Christians a unique devotional experience to treasure for a lifetime.

As the Corinthians turned from their carnal ways back to their calling of fellowship, spiritual life was before them. To continue to strengthen them in this past the apostle Paul helped them to understand what a spiritual man is by his own example. II Corinthians is a type of autobiography of the apostle Paul. In this book, Stephen Kaung looks into spiritual life, spiritual ministry, spiritual giving, and finally the spiritual man. I know a man in Christ ... (II Corinthians 12:2).

Faith community nursing and health ministry programs in congregations have increasingly been recognized as having a significant impact on the health and well-being of individuals. Based on a case study in Omaha, Nebraska, Transforming Lives: Health Initiatives in Faith Communities documents how nurses and health ministers touch and transform in multiple ways the lives of the recipients of their services and the participants in activities they organize. It argues that much of their success is due to their ability to collaborate with each other, with the leadership in congregations, and with health systems; that nurses' and health ministers' understanding of public health is broad in scope and application; and that faith community nurses are the core and heart of this ministry. Rödlach contends that the ability of nurses and health ministers to create relationships with clients and participants is the main factor in how they touch and transform their lives. Considering the increased recognition of the value of faith community nursing and health ministries, these programs have the potential to become significant partners with health systems and governments in providing health services to communities.

There are many different types of prayers that we can pray and as some may argue, also many ways to pray. Some of these patterns include the prayer of thanksgiving, supplication, forgiveness, renunciation, repentance, salvation and others. The list is endless. Some believers are limited to praying by those patterns mentioned and this is fine. However my objective in this manual is to provide you with revelation and insight into my personal journey as an intercessor and provide biblical truths that will help you further your mission in advancing the Kingdom of God. From your personal prayer life to a corporate mandate, prayer is the key to establishing a connection with God. I have learned that when we pray on behalf of others we truly stir the heart of God. This kind of prayer is called intercession and Christ forever lives to make intercession. Though our needs are pressing and desires seem to go unmet, we must press on to cry unto the Lord for others. He is moved with great passion and his blessing will surely come upon you. II Chronicles 7:14 declares, "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land." Believers, our first approach to a lifestyle of prayer must be that we humble ourselves (subdue and bring low), pray (make petitions), seek His face (worship), and turn from our wicked ways (repentance). These are the four principles that will help govern us in effective prayer so God can forgive us and heal our land. Saints, the world we live in is based upon whatever we ask the Father to make it or whatever we fail to ask Him. May a fresh anointing to pray be poured out upon you as you read this manual!
